Today's first reading describes traits of a capable wife, citing trust, generosity, and fear of the Lord. In the second reading, Saint Paul describes how Christians are to stay alert and watch for the signs of Christ's return. Jesus tells his disciples the parable of the talents.

Remembering the Sick or in Need of Our Prayers

Oscar Rodriguez
Elaine Kramer
Hanna Beatty
Kresta Underwood
Sylvia Kelly

Let us lift up in prayer all those among us who are ill and those who have asked us for prayers.

Please call or email the rectory to request a name be added to the list. The names will be on the list for a period of 30 days. If you wish the person to be on the list longer than one month, you will need to call the rectory to request that it be added again.

Message from our Pastor Rev. Dan Nuñez
Reintroduction of the Precious Blood and Holy Communion

Following consultation with the Liturgical Directives and our Diocesan guidelines, St. Columba is pleased to announce the resumption of Holy Communion under both species. Beginning on the weekend of November 28-29, First Sunday of Advent, the faithful will once again have the option to receive the sacred host and the precious blood from the chalice during select Lord's day celebrations.

1) Fullness of the Sacrament: The Church reminds us that Christ is fully and entirely present (Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity) under either single species. Receiving the Host alone constitutes a complete and valid Holy Communion.
2) Voluntary Participation: Receiving from the Chalice is entirely optional. If you are feeling unwell or have health concerns, please refrain from taking the Chalice.
3) No Intinction: Communicants are NOT permitted to dip the Host into the Chalice themselves (intinction), as this poses a significant risk of accidental spilling or profanation.
4) Liturgical Ministers Needed: To ensure we can reverently distribute both species at our regular Sunday Mass, we need additional Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion.

Fall Stewardship Renewal

As disciples of Christ, we share responsibility for the Mission of the Church.

It is an invitation for the parishioners to prayerfully reflect on God's blessings and renew their commitment to Christ through prayer, participation, service, and generosity. Together, we strengthen our parishes, support our schools, sustain vital ministries, and build a vibrant Church for the future generations as one family in faith, United in Christ.

Moments with Fr. Dan
33rd Sunday In Ordinary Time (Year A)

The readings for the 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year A) deliver a powerful wake-up call about how we live our lives while waiting for the Lord's return. As the liturgical year winds down, the church shifts our focus toward eternity, reminding us that time is short and our choices matter.

In the Gospel, the parable of the talents reveals that God has entrusted each of us with unique gifts, our time, abilities, and resources. True discipleship is not passive; it requires active stewardship. The master does not demand identical results, but he does expect faithful effort. The tragedy of the third servants is not that he lost the money, but that fear paralyzed him into doing absolutely nothing. He buried his potentials in the dirt.

St. Paul echoes this urgency in the Second Reading, calling us "Children of the Light" who must stay alert and sober. We cannot live in spiritual slumber or casual indifference. Like the worthy woman in proverbs, we are called to roll up our sleeves, work diligently, and open our hands to the poor. Faithfulness means taking holy risks for the kingdom, stepping out of our safe haven, and using what we have been given to love and serve others.
