In the first reading, Wisdom is described as resplendent and unfading. In the second reading, Saint Paul speaks of the assurance of eternal life for all who believe in Jesus, even those who have fallen asleep. In the Gospel, Jesus shares a parable about ten virgins, five wise and five foolish, who prepare (or fail to prepare) for the bridegroom's return.

Please call or email the rectory to request a name be added to the list. The names will be on the list for a period of 30 days. If you wish the person to be on the list longer than one month, you will need to call the rectory to request that it be added again.

Message from our Pastor Rev. Dan Nuñez
Reintroduction of the Precious Blood and Holy Communion

Following consultation with the Liturgical Directives and our Diocesan guidelines, St. Columba is pleased to announce the resumption of Holy Communion under both species. Beginning on the weekend of November 28-29, First Sunday of Advent, the faithful will once again have the option to receive the sacred host and the precious blood from the chalice during select Lord's day celebrations.

1) Fullness of the Sacrament: The Church reminds us that Christ is fully and entirely present (Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity) under either single species. Receiving the Host alone constitutes a complete and valid Holy Communion.
2) Voluntary Participation: Receiving from the Chalice is entirely optional. If you are feeling unwell or have health concerns, please refrain from taking the Chalice.
3) No Intinction: Communicants are NOT permitted to dip the Host into the Chalice themselves (intinction), as this poses a significant risk of accidental spilling or profanation.
4) Liturgical Ministers Needed: To ensure we can reverently distribute both species at our regular Sunday Mass, we need additional Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion.

Moments with Fr. Dan

32nd Sunday In Ordinary Time (Year A)

In the parable of the ten virgins, Jesus offers a stark reminder about the nature of spiritual readiness. All ten bridesmaids had lamps and all of them fell asleep while waiting. The critical difference between the wise and the foolish was the extra oil in their flasks.

This oil represents the interior depth of our faith, our relationship with God nurtured through daily prayer, the sacraments, and acts of charity. When the midnight cry rings out, the foolish try to borrow oil, but they quickly realize that faith and grace cannot be borrowed. We cannot ride on the spiritual coattails of others; our relationship with Christ must be entirely our own.

As the liturgical year draws to a close, this Sunday asks us to audit our own spiritual reserves. Are we coasting on past habits, or are we actively filling our flasks today? True wisdom means preparing for the delay, living intentionally, and keeping our lamps bright through consistent love and service. "Keep awake, therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour." Let us ensure that when the bridegroom arrives, He finds us ready and waiting.

All Souls' Day envelopes are available in the back of the church throughout the month of November.
